OVER THE SEA BY KITE POWER.

A Singular Adventure in Which Cupid Played a Prominent Part.

The hero of this story, Col. S., has been at a hotel here for a week or two, but at present is in Deland, says a Lake Helen, Florida, dispatch. He is just now the central figure of an adventure, and one in which the god of love played a very conspicuous part. Col. S., it appears, spent most of last winter at the Caicos, a little group of islands north of Cuba. His hotel was built on a perpendicular bluff overlooking the ocean, and the morning before he was to sail for Havana he was taking his usual stroll after breakfast on the beach, gazing out on the green waters and across to the neighboring islands, when, without any warning whatever, a strong cord wound itself about his legs, and something which proved to be a large kite, partly draped and partly lifted him into the sea. The wind was blowing briskly from the land, and away he went over the breakers to the smoother waters beyond.

He caught hold of the cord with his left hand, and with the other he kept his head above water, he being a good swimmer. He was about an hour going to the next island, where a large crowd awaited him with surgeons and restoratives, but he needed very little attention in that direction, his only hurt being where the cord had cut through his clothing and into the fleshy part of his leg.

The young lady who was flying the kite, with others, launched a boat and put out for his rescue, but did not reach him until he had nearly reached the solid earth. Of course the peril he had been in from her careless-ness caused her much nervous agitation, and with her sympathy there was mixed a stranger attachment, at least so the result proved. The boy dragged and pulled his way to the shore, and when he reached it he stopped for him the next day, and his business at Havana being so pressing he was, with reluctance, obliged to leave his new-made friends. Last summer he came to New York, but as he continued to trouble him and grew worse, the doctors said caused by poisoning his blood with the coloring of his pants. In Pennsylvania he heard of a Mrs. Dr. Leggett, who came here every winter, through some of her patients, but whether from the name or not, her correspondent can not say, he took a notion that she could help him, and so followed her to Lake Helen, and in the few days he has received treatment from her his trouble has nearly left him, or, as he expressed it, "has put him on his feet again." But the strangest part of the story is yet to be told. One day recently after taking a bath at a sanitarium, and while on his way to his hotel, he saw a carriage approaching, which proved to be from Deland, and judge of his astonishment and delight when he recognized the young lady, with her father and mother, who flew the kite that caught his legs that caused the pain that brought him here. They all went back to the hotel, and in the hour spent there the day was set for their wedding.

LIVING IN FEAR OF FIRE.

Recent Conflagrations Causing European Aristocracy Some Uneasiness.

The burning of St. Michael's church at Aix la Chapelle, so closely succeeding the destruction of the Belgian monarch's summer place at Laeken, has caused great uneasiness in Belgium and Germany. Both fires were undoubtedly of incendiary origin, and the rumors of the two countries are now aware that they are involved in a deadly conflict with a foe by whom every means of injury or terrorism will be adopted. The striking miners of Belgium and the persecuted socialists of Germany live in their anxiety one means of making themselves heard, though open revolt is denied them, and it remains to be seen whether the national cunning of the proletariat will not be too much for the trained astuteness of the government spies. Poor Humanity!

The common lot is one of sorrow say—at least—the pessimists, they who look at the worst side. Certainly what would otherwise be a bright existence, is often shadowed by some ailment that overhangs it like a pall, obscuring perpetually the radiance that else would light the path. Such an ailment, and a very common one, is nervousness, or in other words, weakness of the nervous system, a condition only irremediable where inefficient or improper means are taken to relieve it. The concurrent experience of nervous people who have persistently used Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is, that it cures entirely superfluous nervousness of the nerves, as well as diseases—so called—which are invited and sustained by their chronic weakness. As the nerves gain strength from the great tonic the trouble disappears. Use the Bitters for malaria, rheumatism, biliousness and kidney troubles.

Here's Your Strength

Continually on the strain, or overtaxed at intervals, is far less desirable than ordinary vigor perpetuated by rational diet and exercise, and abstention from excess. Professional pugilists and athletes rarely attain old age. As ordinary vigor may be retained by a wise regard for sanitary living, and for the protection against disease which timely and judicious medication affords, so also it may be lost through prolonged sedentary labor, interrupted mental strain and foolish eating and drinking, the chief and most immediate sequence of all four being dyspepsia. For this condition there is, in any way induced, and for its offspring, a failure of muscular and nerve power, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the cruelest and most general of remedies. Not only indigestion, but loss of flesh, appetite and sleep are remedied by it. Incipient malaria and rheumatism are banished, and kidney, bowel and liver complaint removed by it.

Unsurpassed in the World.

The vestibule trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, running daily between St. Paul and Minneapolis and Milwaukee and Chicago, are the perfection of modern railway equipment, and are unsurpassed in the world. They consist of elegant day coaches, Pullman's latest and best sleeping cars and the finest dining cars in the country. These trains are lighted by electricity and heated by steam, and afford to the traveler every comfort and convenience to be had at the very best hotels. All classes of tickets are honored on these trains and the rates are no higher than by other lines. It is for this reason that discriminating travelers patronize this company and insist that their tickets read over its line, as they naturally want the best service for their money.

The above bright and benevolent face, is Dr. A. W. Acker, of England, discoverer of the celebrated Acker's English Remedy for Consumption and other popular preparations. Dr. Acker practised in his younger days among the middle classes of London, and was the means of doing great good, but his health failed and he found himself in the grasp of consumption, with a wife and child depending upon him for support. While in this condition, he discovered the celebrated English Remedy, saved his own life and has since saved the lives of thousands who were on the sure road to death. Any man or woman who feels a tickling in the throat, who coughs, especially in the morning, who raises or has a tight feeling across the chest, who has sharp shooting pains through the lungs or difficulty in breathing, should realize that these are the first symptoms of consumption which, if neglected, are sure to result fatally. Dr. Acker's English Remedy has cured more than one thousand persons who unquestionably had consumption and who were given up by their friends. It merits its popularity and is sold by reputable druggists in every city and town in America. You can't afford to be without it.

Children Cry for Fitcher's Castoria

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of women's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for women's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing, cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous, hysterical symptoms which are the result of functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, profuse or falling "white" or "pink" back, "female weakness," anteverision, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription" when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills, cure Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.

For large, illustrated Treatise on Diseases of women (100 pages, paper-covered), send ten cents in stamps. Address,
